Spiritual Direction & Pastoral Counseling Information Session

Have you ever wondered how spiritual direction might support your faith journey? Join us for a meaningful morning as we explore this ancient and life-giving practice together.

During our time, we will:

- Watch selected segments from the James Martin podcast on spiritual direction
- Hear from those who are spiritual directors and pastoral counselors and those involved with this ministry,
- Reflect and share through small group discussion

Whether you're new to the idea or already curious, this session offers a welcoming space to listen, learn, and discern.

All are welcome. We hope you can join us!
