

Mercy Day – Video Edition

Cristo Rey High School	Instituto María Regina	Mercy High School (Omaha)	Mother McAuley Liberal Arts High School	Mount St. Mary Academy (Watchung)

Link	Link	Link	Link	Link
"Sometimes it is just the little things that help us share in God's mercy." Kudos to students at Cristo Rey High School (Sacramento, California) for their video, "Community of Mercy."	On Mercy Day, students at Instituto María Regina (La Ceiba, Honduras) visited local public schools to perform works of mercy.	As is tradition, seniors at Mercy High School (Omaha, Nebraska) put on a Mercy Day play about the life of Catherine McAuley (photo above). This year's play began with Catherine on her deathbed with her sisters gathered around her. She flashes back to important events she remembers in her life.	Theatre Seminar students at Mother McAuley Liberal Arts High School (Chicago, Illinois) performed a unique Mercy Day skit featuring lyrics reworded and sung to the tunes of the Hamilton -- read the reworked lyrics.	Isabel Gachko, Director of Theology and Campus Minister at Mount St. Mary Academy (Watchung, New Jersey), narrates this video about Mercy Week 2018 at the school.