Feedback from 2019 participants:

"Need to be inspired, affirmed, and transformed? If so, be sure your 2020 New Year's resolutions include attending the Education Pilgrimage!"

The experience of reflecting on and gaining insight into Catherine's time and place has deepened my own connection to the mission of Mercy and Mercy education.

I was inspired to educate others to make a difference through the work we do, making it relevant to society today and remaining true to Catherine's mission.
