

“Walking with Christ.”

A Tribute to Father Lourduraj

By: Deacon Rick

This past Sunday I learned that Father Lourduraj is leaving Saint Mary's for another assignment. Like you, I was saddened and shocked to hear that our good friend is moving. I have come to know Father Lourduraj as a great and holy man of God. He is perhaps the holiest priest I have ever met. He is a man that is filled with the love and joy of Christ and he shares that message of love freely. Saint Mary's and our world is a much better place today because of Father Lourduraj and his ministry. The sunrise below is a spectacular one, taken several years ago in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean. When I think spectacular, I think of Father Lourduraj, a spectacular priest, servant, friend and brother. Fortunately, he is not going far and we can stay in contact. The people of Trumbull are very lucky, for they have just received a great gift from God. Our loss is truly their gain! “JESUS I TRUST IN YOU”

Thank you Father Lourduraj... you will be greatly missed and never replaced and

May Almighty God continue to bless you today and always!

Godspeed Father Lourduraj...

GOOD MORNING · SOMEWHERE IN THE ATLANTIC

JUNE 12, 2016 · R.E. LAWLOR