Stronger Together: Back to School Series—Get Your Questions Answered!

Want to attend SNA's Stronger Together: Back to School Series, but have questions about what's in store? Unsure how to request professional development funds in a COVID-19 world? Need help expressing the value of attending this high-level training to your supervisor?

Check out our new series FAQs and "Dear Supervisor" letter! These documents answer basic questions about the series and explain why it is a smart investment for you to take advantage of during these uncertain times.

Attending this new series will be a unique benefit for you where you'll come together virtually with other operators to learn from experts, share ideas, and plan for potential scenarios and environments for school feeding operations in SY 2020-21. Plus, there will be scheduled networking opportunities and a post-event session two weeks after the series concludes!

From strategic planning to PPE for staff, procurement to packaging, implications of social distancing on engagement, menus, sanitation, technology and more—we have designed this series as a complete package exclusively for you to help plan for school feeding in a pandemic as best we can. Remember, every registration includes access to the digital session recordings and suggested reading that you can share with colleagues.

Registration Fee: $149 SNA members, $299 non-members
