Track 1 | Evolving Data Strategies & Foundations for (Gen)AI

This track explores how enterprises evolve their data strategies to enable transformative AI at scale. Carlos Soares (SVP Data and AI, Brenntag) will share insights how to power innovations via data strategy & human ingenuity. Mario Pilz (Chapter Lead IoT, Siemens Energy) will drill down into the interplay between regulations and efficiency gains. Pinar Dolen (Chief Analytics Officer, SAP) and Stijn Christiaens (Co-founder and Chief Data Citizen, Collibra) will focus on democratization of data analytics and AI. Join our experts for impulses and discussion on how to evolve the data foundation for (Gen)AI with Una Shortt (Group CDO, Schneider Electric), Ricardo Crepaldi (Global Director Data Foundation, BASF) and others.

Limited spots are available, so request asap a seat for you.

Platinum Sponsor | Collibra: Unlock AI's full potential with trusted data

In the AI era, your algorithms are only as smart as the data that powers them. But with 55% of data leaders lacking trust in their data, fragmented governance is becoming the biggest roadblock to safe, scalable innovation. The Essential Guide to Data Reliability in the AI Era explores why traditional governance models fall short—and how unified governance can restore confidence across your entire data ecosystem. Learn what Data Confidence™ really means and discover a proven six-step framework to profile, monitor, and optimize your data continuously. Don't let unreliable data derail your AI initiatives— download the guide and take control of your data with Collibra.

Gold Sponsor | Thoughtworks: Unlock Enterprise AI Success

Thoughtworks is a global consultancy blending strategy, design, and engineering to help organizations turn AI into a measurable business asset. Our latest guide, Drive Measurable AI Success, outlines a practical, proven framework across three dimensions: technical readiness, governance, and cultural enablement. Inside, you'll find real-world case studies, actionable strategies, and insights on how to build AI products, platforms, and data foundations that scale.

Whether you're launching your first use case or scaling enterprise-wide, this paper will help you bridge vision and execution.

Join us at CDOIQ to discover how to drive measurable success with AI and transform your organization from concept to value.
