

European Restructuring Day

By Piotr Bieniasz

EACTP and TMA Europe co-organized the first edition of European Restructuring Day in Gdańsk, Poland on the 21st of June 2018. The event brought together restructuring professionals from Poland and across Europe.

The key note speech by Jukka Pekka Joensuu addressed major economic issues that Europe is currently facing and its impact on turnaround profession.

The event included two panels: “Legal Tools in Turnaround” and “NPL and Turnaround”. On the first panel Jukka Pekka Joensuu moderated a discussion on legal developments in restructuring law in Poland and across Europe together with Przemysław Kozdój from Wolf Theiss and Daniel Radwański from Dentons. The second panel moderated by Piotr Bieniasz - Krzywiec was dedicated to contribution of turnaround profession to restructuring of corporate non performing loans on a going concern basis. Panellists included Alan Tilley and Matthew Quade from Bryan, Mansell and Tilley LLP and Catalin Nichifor from Nichifor Consulting.

The event was concluded by Alan Tilley who in his closing speech put an emphasis on the turnaround community networking opportunities through TMA Europe and education programmes that contribute to the effectiveness of cross border restructurings.

The organizers would like to thank to all contributors and wish to invite for the second European Restructuring Day in Gdańsk in 2019.

