- ☐ Chili - $25 entry fee
- ☐ Cornbread - $10 entry fee

Contestants: Please provide the information requested above and check which category you will be entering - you may enter both if you like. Contestant space is limited so submit your entry form ASAP to reserve a spot! Entry forms will be processed on a first come first serve basis. All entries must be dropped off at the main office in the Village Shops, 2520 King Arthur Blvd., Suite 200, along with the entry fee (you will not be considered a contestant until we have the entry form and entry fee).

- Judging will be performed by Tasters (event attendees) that choose to participate by purchasing a tasting package for $5.
- Tasting cups, spoons, and voting cans will be supplied by Castle Hills HOA.
- Contestants must bring their own utensils or anything they may need to serve their chili/cornbread: sanitation supplies, chili warmer, crock pot, chaffing dish, propane burner, extension cords and copies of the recipe if you would like to share.
- Limit of 2 toppings to serve with your chili.
- Contestants also need to bring a stand-up card/small chalkboard, etc. that list all the ingredients in the chili/cornbread in the event Tasters may have food allergies, are gluten free, vegan, etc. (you do not have to list amounts or cooking instructions)
- As a reference, we had 125 Tasters last year. A suggested amount to prepare is 2 slow cookers full.
- Please arrive no later than 4:30 pm for set up and a brief meeting. Tasters will be permitted to start tasting/voting promptly at 5:00 pm with all tasting/voting completed by 7:00 pm. Winners announced at 7:30 pm.
- Cash prizes will be determined based on the number of contestant and taster participation.
- HOA management will oversee the counting of the chips and determination of winners. All results are final.
- All rules are subject to change based on the number of contestants
