ANNOUNCING OUR 2022–2023 ISPTSA EXECUTIVE BOARD

Please welcome the following people to our new ISPTSA Executive board. The board comes with a wealth of experience to make next year a great year to support our students at International School.

- Meribeth Nordloef-Pedersen, President. Meribeth served as ISPTSA president in 2017 and is once again enthusiastically taking on this position.

- Judy Cam, Secretary. Judy is an experienced PTSA board member and has been hard at work revitalizing the Lake Hills Elementary PTSA.

- Our finances are being overseen by our expert Treasurer 1, Li Lu, and joined by Vera Ho as Treasurer 2. The treasurer positions are crucial for a well-run board providing monthly reports and updates from the IRS and the state to keep us on top of things.

- Emily Castle and Phil Block, Co-VP's of Fundraising. Emily was last year's ISPTSA president and serving as Council President and VP of Fundraising on various boards, bringing abundant experience to the board. Phil focused on school issues and school excellence and will be a welcome addition to the team.

- Melissa Richardson and Jessica Smiddy, Co-VP's of Outreach. Both Melissa and Jessica are focused on people and results. This position covers lots of areas that define the work that PTSA does at IS. With Melissa and Jessica taking this on, we can expect excellent coverage.

- Qiong Chen, VP of Community. Qiong Chen was a former Co-VP of Community and oversaw our great teacher/staff appreciation efforts. We are happy that she is stepping into this position again. She is looking for a Co-VP to work with her in this important Community Committee.

- Jennifer Greene Li is VP of Communications and will oversee the various ways ISPTSA communicates with our community. As an experienced board member, Jennifer will blend seamlessly into her role and work easily with the board.
