

PAUL PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOL

SUMMER LEARNING OPPORTUNITIES FOR SCHOLARS

Virtual Summer Camps, Workshops & More

From STEM to art and creative writing, we've compiled a diverse list of instructional learning opportunities for Paul scholars of all ages. Summer learning activities and programs allow scholars to enhance their skills in key areas, expand their interests, discover new talents, and keep their minds sharp and engaged for the upcoming school year.

Varsity Tutors Virtual Camps

Varsity Tutors offers variety of different virtual enrichment opportunities (i.e., Spanish, public speaking, labs) for students of all ages K-12.

Varsity Tutors

Cost: Free

Paul Creative Writing (6-8)

We're offering an engaging and dynamic writing Creative Writing Workshop for middle school students. Students will learn how to enhance their writing skills through various creative writing exercises.

Creative Writing Workshop Grades 6-8

Cost: Free

ActivityHero Summer Camps

Search for a list of online summer camps by age. Offers a variety of camps such as virtual basketball, art, statistics, coding, Java.

ActivityHero

Cost: Varies

Paul PCS: AMPLIFIED (9-12)

AMPLIFIED is an opportunity for teens to grow as writers while connecting with others in a safe space. From book club discussions to comedy writing to plot and character in fiction to personal statement coaching--there's a session for every writer!

AMPLIFIED Grades 9-12

Cost: Free

Know Your Power Art Contest

What change would you like to see in the world? Pepco and DC Public Library are calling on youth between the ages of 13 - 19 to create an original work of writing, photography, illustration or music that expresses your feelings on a social issue that matters to you. Submissions will be accepted May 18 through Aug. 14.

DC Public Library

Cost: Free

Virtual Theater Camps

DC arts organizations are offering a variety of virtual theater camp experiences for scholars in grades K-12.

DC Metro Theater Arts

Cost: Varies

PAUL
Public Charter School