

Glenn Robert Hoddy

June 28, 1921 – November 1, 2017

Glenn Robert Hoddy, the great patriarch of the Hoddy family at age 96 passed from this life into glorious eternity with our Lord and Savior on Nov 1, 2017.

Born June 28, 1921, the oldest child of Glenn Oliver Hoddy and Arie Hoddy. He graduated at the age of 15 from Grove City HS class of 1937. He continued his education at the Ohio State University where he lettered as a football player and played competitive handball. He was drafted and served as a link training instructor in World War II. He finished his education at Ohio University with a master's degree in education. Glenn became a teacher, passionately coached high school football, basketball, track & field, baseball, and later became an administrator, retiring from South Western City Schools. He attended Galloway Presbyterian Church for most of his life where he enjoyed teaching Bible studies. Glenn was an avid Horseshoe pitcher, winning many state and national tournaments. Glenn was a lifetime member of the Whetstone Horseshoe Club. He loved spending time with his family, playing games like croquet, euchre, cribbage and solving crossword puzzles. He enjoyed supporting his grandchildren in all of their activities and playing with his great grandchildren. He married his childhood sweetheart Eloise and spent 69 wonderful years with her until she passed. He was and always will be a true hero to everyone in his family. He loved and served his family with all of his being and we all carry a part of him in us. He always went above and beyond what was expected and was true to his word. He has left a legacy that his family will forever cherish, remembering him in love, honor, and joy.

Glenn was preceded in death by his parents, his sisters Ellen Rogers and Evelyn Arnold, his baby daughter Judith Ann Hoddy, his daughter in law Mary Anne Hoddy, and son in law Kenneth Charles Case III. He is survived by his son John Hoddy, daughters Rebecca Case, Christine (Burt) Smith; grandchildren John C. (Michele) Hoddy, Sarah "Beezie" Hall, Michael (Grace) Hoddy, Nathan (Yuri) Smith, Charley Case, Philip (Juhee) Smith, Rebecca (Chris) Knudsen, and great grandchildren: Joshua Hall, Zachary Hall, Kayleigh Hall, Eloise Knudsen, Liberty Smith, Soren Knudsen, Christopher Hoddy, Leola Smith, and Arie Smith.
