
George Maky Jr.

George John Maky, Jr. LEXINGTON - George John Maky, Jr., 84, of Lexington, SC, passed away on Saturday, March 24, 2018 at his home. Born in the Bronx, New York, to the late Ellen and George Maky, Sr., he was a beloved husband and devoted family man. George was a pistachio-loving entrepreneur, a crossword enthusiast, a Civil War buff, and an avid reader who could almost always be found working on a home improvement project. His laughter and riddles will be dearly missed. George is survived by the love of his life and wife of 66 years, Jean Ann Nielsen Maky; their children, Jean Manheimer (Peter), Debbie Etherington (David), George Maky (Paula), Karan Rukrigl (Peter); grandchildren, Stacey Jodie (Brett), Jeff Manheimer (Brooke), Adam Etherington (Leah), Laura Maky, Somers Farmer (Ric), Pierce Rukrigl (Perry), Chad Rukrigl; and great-grandchildren, Alexis and Faith Jodie, and Jack, Drew, and Sydney Manheimer. He was predeceased by his granddaughter, Lisa Etherington. A service celebrating George's life will be held on Saturday, March 31 at 11 a.m. in the First Baptist Church of Lexington, Student Center, Barr Road, Lexington, SC. He previously expressed that he did not wish to have a funeral but acquiesced to a memorial service on the condition that he not be required to attend. George was a donor to the Gift of Body Program at USC School of Medicine. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the Friends of the Lexington Main Library, PO Box 1015, Lexington, SC 29071.

Published in The State on Mar. 28, 2018
