

Jeff Landry
GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS,

the United States Department of Education clearly demonstrates that young adults who earn postsecondary credentials significantly boost their earning potential, thereby contributing to long-term economic growth for themselves and their communities; and

WHEREAS,

bridging the gap between high school and postsecondary education is essential to ensuring students acquire the skills and knowledge necessary to secure gainful employment, earn a livable wage, and maintain a sustainable quality of life; and

WHEREAS,

the Louisiana Office of Student Financial Assistance (LOSFA), under the Board of Regents, in partnership with other state agencies, higher education institutions, and college access programs, is dedicated to providing high school seniors with critical resources and support, thereby expanding opportunities for postsecondary attainment, improving retention, and driving demonstrable success; and

WHEREAS,

Louisiana high school seniors who participate in these collaborative efforts gain valuable assistance from LOSFA, trained school staff, and committed volunteers as they overcome common hurdles to enrolling in higher education, thus positioning themselves for future achievement and contribution to our state's prosperity;

NOW, THEREFORE,

I, Jeff Landry, Governor of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim April 2025 as

College Commitment and Attainment Month

in the State of Louisiana.

In Witness Whereof I have hereunto set my hand officially and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Louisiana at the Capitol in the city of Baton Rouge on this 20th day of February A.D. 2025.

Jeff Landry
Governor of Louisiana