

NEWPORT
HOSPITALITY GROUP

COME
GROW
WITH US

nhghotels.com

Why Choose a Career in Hotels?

With so many career choices it's hard to decide on just one! But here are a few reasons that may make you think differently about taking on a career in hotels...

Plenty of Opportunities for Growth

The hotel industry gives you a number of opportunities to advance both professionally and personally. You have the opportunity to expand your skills while developing and learn new skills.

Security for the Future

Many of our team members manage their jobs around their study and class schedules. The flexibility to work part-time, have flexible working hours, and the opportunity to pick up extra shifts when able.

No Two Days the Same

You come across so many new people and new challenges every day, no matter your role you can be sure that you'll never get bored.

Perks

Not only do you have the opportunity to meet and greet new people every day, from all about the country and even the world, you also receive discounts on hotel rooms. Plus, our standard benefits of medical, dental, 401K.

Work in a Fantastic Atmosphere

Working in the hotel industry means that you are surrounded by lots of friendly and upbeat people. The hotel itself is an exciting place to be whether a corporate or resort atmosphere there is always something happening.

Flexibility

Many of our team members manage their jobs around their study and class schedules. The flexibility to work part-time, have flexible working hours, and the opportunity to pick up extra shifts when you can.

If you think a job in hotels could be for you, no matter your skills or expertise take a look at our careers section nhghotels.com/careers and check out all of our latest opportunities across our portfolio.

