

INTRODUCTION TO CLINICAL & TRANSLATIONAL RESEARCH COURSE

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Discover the keys to effective research design at the MaineHealth Institute for Research (MHIR) annual one-day course.

Delve into the intricacies of conducting research within MaineHealth and explore invaluable resources like Research Navigation.

WHO CAN ATTEND

This course is tailored for healthcare professionals keen on enhancing their research skills and leveraging resources for impactful studies within MaineHealth.

WHAT YOU'LL LEARN

- Craft effective Research Questions
- Design a Research Study
- Promote Patient-Centered Outcomes
- Insights from a Physician Researcher Panel

HIGHLIGHTS

- Explore the MaineHealth research landscape
- Learn how to utilize Research Navigation
- Network with fellow researchers
- Engage in interactive sessions & workshops

THURSDAY
APRIL 11, 2024

7:45AM - 5:00PM

MHIR
81 RESEARCH DR
SCARBOROUGH, ME

TO REGISTER, CONTACT:

Course Director

Kahsi A. Pedersen, PhD

kahsi.pedersen@mainehealth.org

Course Coordinators

Ellyn Touchette

ellyn.touchette@mainehealth.org

Ellie Walker

elizabeth.walker1@maine.edu