

Clinical Strategy Committee

Friday, September 19, 2025 / 7:30 – 9:00 AM / Virtual

The next Clinical Strategy Committee (CSC) meeting will feature a Payer Strategy Panel focused on advancing high-quality, equitable, team-based primary care in Rhode Island. This important session will bring together health plan leaders to share perspectives on current priorities, innovations, and opportunities for collaboration with primary care practices.

The discussion will explore:

- Emerging strategies in primary care transformation
- Innovative models that align with CSC's focus areas (quality, affordability, equity, integrated behavioral health, workforce sustainability, and more)
- Opportunities for payer–practice collaboration to strengthen Rhode Island's primary care system

Speakers include:

- Barry Fabius, MD – Chief Medical Officer / Senior Medical Director, UnitedHealthcare Community Plan
- Victor Pinkes, MD – Senior Medical Director, Blue Cross Blue Shield of Rhode Island
- Thomas Amoroso, MD, Medical Director, Medicaid, Point32Health / Tufts Health Plan
- Christopher Ottiano, MD – Medical Director, Neighborhood Health Plan of Rhode Island

The meeting will conclude with a guided discussion to identify areas of alignment, explore potential partnerships, and surface actionable next steps for the Committee.

If you are not yet receiving calendar invitations for these meetings, please reach out to Mitchell Irving at mirving@ctc-ri.org.
