| Full Name | Lorri Jameson |
| Desired Office for Candidacy | Director at Large |
| How do you envision your role as Director at Large? | I envision my role as Director at Large as being a significant role in furthering the advancement of vascular access. In this role I will work with others as a team to ensure that best practice is in the fore front of vascular access and that new technologies are introduced and shared with our vascular access colleagues. I believe that vascular access teams, especially in the United States, is still in their infancy and has so much potential for growth to truly become Vascular Access Teams. In this position I hope to help these team recognize what that potential is and how to obtain it. As Director at Large, working with multiple disciplines, I see a great opportunity to advance my own knowledge base and become a better leader and advocate for the specialty of vascular access. |
| Summary of your qualifications | I have be on the Vascular Access Team since 2005. I have been an active member of AVA for several years. I have also been an active member of our local network, COVAN, and served 4 years as the membership board and 2 years as the Southern Colorado Meeting Coordinator. I have been the Nurse Team Lead for the PICC team at my facility for 5 years. I am active in many committees at my facility including the Magnet Steering Committee, The Value Analysis Team and the Infection Prevention Committee. I obtained my MSN/Ed in September 2015. I sat for my VA-BC in December of 2010. I have attended several AVA conferences as well as COVAN symposiums. |
