Interested in donating a basket? We love baskets of all shapes & sizes. Themed baskets sell best and unusual baskets are always a draw! If you have a new book to include in your basket, that's great. If not, we'll find just the right one to include with your basket. Please contact gail.billingsley@gmail.com with your basket details. If we can have a general basket description by October 7, that's great! Baskets won't be "due" until November 1.
