A 2022 WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

Charity work is an immediate and short-term response to social issues. When justice is integrated, identifying systemic causes and long-term strategies becomes the focus.

This women's conference will address how members can connect their community involvement with social and climate justice. This conference will focus on labour's role in advancing a fairer and more just world.

This conference is open to ETFO members who self-identify as women and are interested in connecting their community involvement with social justice movements.

MARCH 30 (5:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m.) and
