

CONSCIOUS CLASSROOMS

Responding to Gender-Based Violence

Holiday Inn Sudbury,
1696 Regent Street, Sudbury, Ontario

April 7 – April 8, 2022

ETFO has partnered with the Toronto Rape Crisis Centre/Multicultural Women Against Rape and White Ribbon to develop Conscious Classrooms: Responding to Gender-Based Violence.

The two-day regional conference is a women's program which aims to:

- Enhance participants' understanding of gender-based violence (GBV) within school communities;
- Examine how to balance professional obligations to report student disclosures while supporting students who have disclosed exposure to GBV; and
- Explore strategies for creating trauma-informed and gender-inclusive classrooms.

Regional Conference

Algoma, Near North,
Ontario North East
and Rainbow

Selection Criteria

The workshop is open to ETFO members who self-identify as women.

This is the third of three regional conferences and is open to the following locals: Algoma, Near North, Ontario North East and Rainbow.

First time participants and those who have not attended a Conscious Classrooms: Responding to Gender-Based Violence or Women Abuse Affects our Children workshop within the last five years are encouraged to apply.
