HCC Chancellor Dr. Margaret Ford Fisher warmly invites you to join us for the Houston City College Community Partnership Meetings.

Over the past three years, our enrollment has grown significantly, creating expanded career pathways for students and increasing access and opportunity for all. We are excited about this momentum and the impact it is having across our community. Come hear more about our growth, our vision, and our plans to continue serving and supporting every member of our community. Most importantly, we want to hear from you — your ideas, insights, and partnership matter.
