*CALL TO WORSHIP

Kathy Robinson, liturgist

From the safety and comfort of home, God called Abram to go from all he knew to embrace a future yet to be revealed.

"Go from," God says, and our hesitant hearts place one foot in front of the other to trust God with the unknown.

By night, Nicodemus came seeking greater insight into the teachings of God for the journey set before him. Jesus called him out of the shadows and towards a life born anew.

"Go towards" God says, and a new life awaits us. We reach towards a God who has not come to condemn the world but to offer a salve that can heal all wounds.

We fear the unknown and that which we lack in understanding. "How can this be?" we proclaim with Nicodemus. And yet, God's call is one that urges us to go with our whole self into that unknowing, trusting that God will provide a way.

Love calls us forth into lives of transformation, born anew into new paths of faith. Though we do not know where we are going, God has promised to never leave us alone. Let us worship the One who will show us the way.

PRAYERS OF THE PEOPLE

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Creator
who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.

Thy kin-dom come,
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread
And forgive us our debts,
As we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kin-dom,
and the power and the glory forever, Amen.

HYMN OF COMMITMENT #271 Wind Who Makes All Winds That Blow

*DOXOLOGY

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God for all that love has done;
Creator, Christ, and Spirit, One. Amen.

*BENEDICTION

Frank Hairston

Because of the penitential nature of the season of Lent, there will be no postlude.

Our service has ended. Now our service begins.
You are the Body of Christ, and the whole world awaits you.

The chancel flowers are an offering today from Nancy and Don Bubenzer, in honor of Sophia Grace and all the children of the church.
