WELCOME

Rev. Kim Nagy, minister of faith formation

CALL TO WORSHIP

Noah Dunlap

You have gathered us into this place, Migrant God.

We have come from north, south, east, and west to worship our God.

You have called us to welcome the stranger in our midst, Divine Border Crosser.

We are a community working to bring God's kin-dom to earth as we dream of a just world for all.

You have poured out your itinerant Spirit among us, guiding us in wisdom and faith.

We remember that we were once foreigners in this place, O God. We have come to proclaim welcome to the stranger among us!

God, You Move Across the Borders

HOLY MANNA

The musical score is written for a four-part choir (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) in 4/4 time, with a key signature of three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat). The melody is primarily in the Soprano and Alto parts, with Tenor and Bass parts providing harmonic support. The lyrics are written below the vocal staves, with line numbers 1, 2, and 3 indicating different vocal parts or verses. The score is divided into four systems, each with a vocal staff and a bass staff. The lyrics are as follows:

1. God, you— move a - cross the— bor - ders. with the— ones who need to flee.
2. God, you— break down might—y— barr' - iers, sins we've sanc-tioned far too long.
3. God, you— move a - cross the— barr' - iers, off' - ring— love in Je - sus Christ.

You walk. with the wear - y— trav' - ler; you go— with the ref - u - gee.
We have—walked on paths of— priv' - lege; you have—moved to right the wrong.
Through your. Son, our Lord and— Sav - ior, you have— called: "Now share my life!"

You cry out from mass de - ten - tion; you seek jus - tice, here de - nied.

By your Spi - rit, give us— cou - rage; help us bold - ly move to— be

You en - fold with great com - pass - ion— those the— na - tions push a - side.
You have—judged us and re - newed. us; you have—shown that love will win.
