

The Initial Coverage Enrollment Period is the seven-month period beginning three months before and ending three months after the beneficiary's 65th birthday month. Medicare is always effective the first of the month. If the beneficiary's birthday is the first of the month, the birth month is considered to be the first day of the preceding month.