STEPS IN A PAIRED READING ACTIVITY

Learners...

- ❖ form teams of four
- ❖ complete pre-reading (schema building and vocabulary) activities.
- ❖ choose one of two complementary texts (2 A and 2 B in each team)
- ❖ preview texts and discuss critical literacy
- ❖ read texts independently and silently with the purpose of learning and sharing new information. Answer focus questions.
- ❖ pair up according to their texts: A-A, B-B.
- ❖ check understanding using focus questions to verify their own and their partner's understanding of the text. (expert groups are optional)
- ❖ work with their team (A-A-B-B) and present their text's information to each other using the focus questions as a guide.
- ❖ use information from the texts as well as personal experience, background knowledge as the basis of team discussion and completion of a group task dealing with cross-cultural issues, critical literacy or text content.
