

Taylor Kelly, J.D.

Policy Advisor, Aimed Alliance

Ms. Kelly serves as policy advisor to Aimed Alliance, a not-for-profit organization that works to protect and enhance the rights of health care consumers and practitioners. She offers insight into issues surrounding access to and coverage of care, including federal health care reform, state benefit utilization management laws, and employee benefits. In this capacity, she conducts research and analysis of laws, regulations, and legislation; assists with advocacy initiatives; offers policy analysis and drafting; and supports coalition-building efforts of allied organizations focused on advancing common goals. Ms. Kelly is also a law clerk at DCBA Law, where she provides counsel to nonprofit patient advocacy groups, health care professionals and programs, and other members of the health care industry.

Prior to her work with Aimed Alliance, Ms. Kelly interned for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Departmental Appeals Board, the Center for Reproductive Rights, and Vitalyst Health Foundation.

Ms. Kelly earned her Juris Doctor degree from George Mason School of Law. She obtained her bachelor's degree in Philosophy, Politics, Economics, and Law from the University of Arizona.