

The Payment Reform Readiness Learning Community

Develop a deep understanding of the clinical, operational and financial benchmarks and the processes that align with sustainable financing models.

Identify gaps and develop processes that support pay-for-performance financing strategies while continuing to care for underserved populations.

Develop an understanding of the various models of financial risk and requirements and their impact on payers and provider.

Provides a unique opportunity for California counties and providers to work together and develop a detailed understanding of the various models related to payment reform.
