Keynote

Dr. Nadine Burke Harris
CA Surgeon General

The California Council of Community Behavioral Health Agencies (CBHA) and our partners at NextGen Policy are excited to announce, Let's Talk About It: What You Need to Know About COVID-19 Vaccines! This event will be a safe place to learn more about vaccination options and address questions. We will be joined by two amazing panels featuring community leaders and medical experts from BIPOC communities, the California Surgeon General, Dr. Nadine Burke Harris, and the program will be moderated by Courtney Dempsey of Good Day Sacramento! Register now and submit questions for our speakers and panelists!
