

Per the Greater Enid Chamber of Commerce bylaws, the Nominating Committee has submitted the proposed slate of directors to replace the directors whose terms are expiring on June 30, 2022. This slate is open to petition. If no petitions are filed by 5:00 pm Wednesday, May 11, 2022 the nominations shall be closed and the nominated slate of candidates shall be declared elected.

The Proposed Slate of Directors

Term of Office: July 1, 2022 - June 30, 2025

Jessy Chicas, Tyson Foods

Missy Harmon, Envirotech Engineering & Consulting

Matt Parrish, PT

Mike Riddle, Bank of Kremlin

Tim Starkey, Great Salt Plains Health Center

Nominations by petition: Additional candidates for Directors may be nominated by petition bearing the signatures of at least fifteen (15) members of the Chamber (signers must be members of the Chamber in good standing) along with the signature of the nominee (nominee must be a member of the Chamber in good standing) indicating his or her acceptance to serve if elected. Such petition(s) shall be filed with the Nominating Committee no later than 5:00 pm on Wednesday, May 11, 2022 at the Chamber office, 210 Kenwood Blvd. The determination of the Nominating Committee as to the validity of the petition(s) shall be final. If a valid petition is received, the Nominating Committee shall conduct a ballot election per the by-laws of the organization.

The board terms are expiring for Todd Earl, Roxanne Pollard, Jayde Ray, Mike Riddle, and Carrie Sanders. Mike Riddle is eligible to continue serving because he was originally completing an unexpired term. Todd Earl will continue to serve as the '22-'23 Chairman. We thank these directors for their service. If you have any questions concerning the single slate election or the right to petition, please contact Jon Blankenship at jon@enidchamber.com or 580.237.2494.
