

Enid Day at the Capitol

“By participating in this event, we can play a role in influencing decisions that impact the lives of fellow Oklahomans. It's an opportunity for collaboration, exchange, and empowerment in shaping the future of our state.”

- Mike Riddle
Enid Chamber Economic Development/Government Affairs
Committee Chair and Board Chair Elect

March 4, 2025 | 8:30 – 11am

John D. Groendyke Wildlife Building
1801 N. Lincoln Blvd., OKC

Parking On Site | Continental Breakfast

Enid Day at the Capitol will be held on Tuesday, March 4, 2025 at the John D. Groendyke Wildlife Building located at 1801 North Lincoln Boulevard in Oklahoma City. Legislators, state agency officials, and staff will attend the breakfast which will begin at 8:30 a.m.

Greater Enid Chamber State Economic Development/Government Affairs Committee Chair and Board Chair Elect, Mike Riddle said Enid Day at the Capital will be a chance to engage with state leadership.

“Several legislators and other state officials will pause their busy schedules to welcome Enid constituents, providing a valuable platform for dialogue between state officials and local residents,” Riddle said. “This event offers a unique opportunity for citizens to engage with receptive state leadership and voice their perspectives on proposed legislation.”

Riddle added, “In Enid, we are privileged to have representatives who genuinely care about our community's input and actively seek to understand our concerns. By participating in this event, we can play a role in influencing decisions that impact the lives of fellow Oklahomans. It's an opportunity for collaboration, exchange, and empowerment in shaping the future of our state.”

“Enid Day at the Capitol is a good opportunity to discuss legislative priorities for the session,” said Jon Blankenship, Enid Chamber President. “In addition to our local state legislators, we are expecting Governor Stitt and Lt. Governor Pinnell to stop by and speak to our Enid group.”

Officials from the City of Enid, members of Leadership Greater Enid Class XXXIV, and respected community leaders are expected to join members of the Enid Chamber to represent Enid at this significant annual event.

Thank you to City of Enid, Oklahoma Gas & Electric, Oxbow Calcining, Security National Bank and Stride Bank for sponsoring 2025 Enid Day at the Capitol.