Lindsay Raupe

Hometown: Midwest City, OK

Family: am married to a wonderful Coach and Teacher named Paul Raupe. We have a spunky and active 7 year old son named Atticus who is in 2nd grade. We have a beagle named Holly Berry and a black cat named Nox.

Occupation/Profession: I am a Social Worker. I work at The Commons in Enid as the Resident Services Director where I am in charge of Social Services and Activities for the Healthcare Center.

What is the best piece of advice you have ever received? I have a couple of quotes that I try to live by in my life. "I've learned that people will forget what you said, people will forget what you did, but people will never forget how you made them feel."- Maya Angelo and "Fairness does not mean everyone gets the same. Fairness means everyone gets what they need." - Rick Riordan, The Red Pyramid.

What qualities do you look for in a leader? The things I look for in a leader are honesty, respect, humor, and a willingness to never ask someone to do something that they would not do themselves.

If you had to delete all but 3 apps from your smartphone, which ones do you keep? I could never delete the Kindle app, the Amazon Shopping app, or the Harry Potter Spells and Puzzles app from my phone.

Favorite thing about Enid? My favorite thing about Enid is the sense of community. The city always has something going on for families and people of the town like First Friday, Festivals, parks, and more. There is always something available to do.
