Enid Day at the Capitol will be held on Tuesday, March 4, 2025 at the John D. Groendyke Wildlife Building located at 1801 North Lincoln Boulevard in Oklahoma City. Enid area legislators and state agency officials will attend the networking breakfast which begins at 8:30 a.m.

Enid Chamber State Economic Development/Government Affairs Committee Chairman and Board Chair-Elect, Mike Riddle said Enid Day at the Capitol will be a chance to engage with state leadership.

“There is a lot going on at this time at the Capitol as our Legislature is in session. Some of our legislators and other state officials will interrupt their busy schedules to attend Enid Day at the Capitol to meet with their local Enid constituents. They are always receptive to visiting with those in attendance.”

Riddle added, “It is a great opportunity to learn about proposed legislation and to exchange ideas with our state leadership. We are fortunate in Enid to be represented by legislators who want to hear our positions on the issues. This is our chance to have some input on decisions that affect Oklahomans.”

“Enid Day at the Capitol is a great opportunity to discuss legislative priorities for the session,” said Jon Blankenship, Enid Chamber President. “In addition to our Enid area legislators, we are expecting Governor Stitt and Lt. Governor Pinnell to stop by and speak to our Enid group.”

Officials from the City of Enid, members of Leadership Greater Enid Class XXXIV, and business and education leaders will also attend this annual legislative event.

Thank you to City of Enid, Oklahoma Gas & Electric, Oklahoma Natural Gas, Oxbow Calcining, Security National Bank and Stride Bank for sponsoring 2025 Enid Day at the Capitol.
