The Wall of Honor

The Wall of Honor represents our Fallen Heroes from 2001 through 2016. As of February 2017, it now includes the service men and women killed in action of Desert Storm and Desert Shield. The "new" Wall of Honor did not change much in size. Each panel is 38" by 82". There are now 32 panels with 104 names on each side of the panels. There are 2 panels dedicated to Major sponsors and panels that explain when and how each of the wars began.

The "Wall of Honor" can be set up and displayed at your location. We have had great success displaying the Wall of Honor at schools, museums, shopping malls and other various locations. Viewing the Wall of Honor is an emotional experience for many and reminds us that the price of freedom is not free. Many have made the ultimate sacrifice for the freedoms that we enjoy today. Read the history of the Wall of Honor below. To arrange to have the traveling Wall of Honor brought to your location contact Vets Helping Vets HQ at 541-791-4357.

History of the Wall

Faces of the Fallen is a visual tribute to each serviceman or woman killed in the current conflicts in Iraq and Afghanistan. The display was created in 2003 by Alicia Tallman for her senior project at Milwaukie High School. Her sister, Kelly Tallman, assumed responsibility for updating the display. All of the students who have worked on Faces of the Fallen have taken great pride and ownership in the project, ensuring that each individual is properly honored.

The display itself had 24 panels, measuring eight feet tall by three feet wide, with biographies and photos on both sides. Its flexible design enables the user to configure set-up based on available space or desired impact. The size and magnitude gives viewers an immediate, breathtaking sense of ultimate sacrifice made by today's soldiers. When InSpirit Marketing Inc. started B-Mart Freedom Fest celebration in Albany nine years ago, they arranged for the Faces of the Fallen to be brought to Albany and set up at Heritage Mall from late October through the weekend after Veterans Day. InSpirit Marketing continued this every year until 2014, at which time they looked for an organization to take over possession and maintain the Hall of Honor.

Vets Helping Vets HQ was approached and took possession of it the summer of 2014. The Wall of Honor formerly known as Faces of the Fallen, was only current through the year 2010. During the time it was on display at the Heritage Mall in Albany, Oregon 2014, Arthur Meeker, owner of Xtreme Grafx, a graphic art company, approached Vets Helping Vets HQ, (VHVHQ), with a proposal that he would reprint all the data on new panels before the next viewing in October, 2015. Many thousands of hours was put in to create a new format for the new "Wall of Honor". October 9, 2015 6:30 pm the last panel was printed to represent those servicemen and women of all branches across the USA that paid the price in Iraq and Afghanistan. Later that evening it was put on display at the Heritage Mall again, only this time with a new look.

The Wall of Honor represents our Fallen Heroes from 2001 through 2016. As of February 2017, it now includes the service men and women killed in action of Desert Strom and Desert Shield. The "new" Wall of Honor did not change much in size. Each panel is 38" X 82". There are now 32 panels with 104 names on each side of the panels. There are 2 panels dedicated to Major sponsors and panels that explain when and how each of the wars began.

We have to remember that while most people celebrate Veterans Day and Memorial Day just two days per year, for Gold Star families, those that have lost someone in war, those memories are every day of the year. There is an empty chair at the dinner table every night.

WALL OF HONOR

May 22 through May 31, 2020

Dear Friend,

The Fox Valley Veterans Breakfast Club invites you to become a valued sponsor of the "WALL OF HONOR". The wall includes 7200 + names with a photo of each man or woman killed in the Middle East Conflicts from 2001 through 2016. This will be the first time the wall will be in Illinois. The Wall will arrive in the Fox Valley area on May 22nd and will remain on display until May 31st. This is our community's first time to show honor and respect to our young veterans from 2001 through 2018.

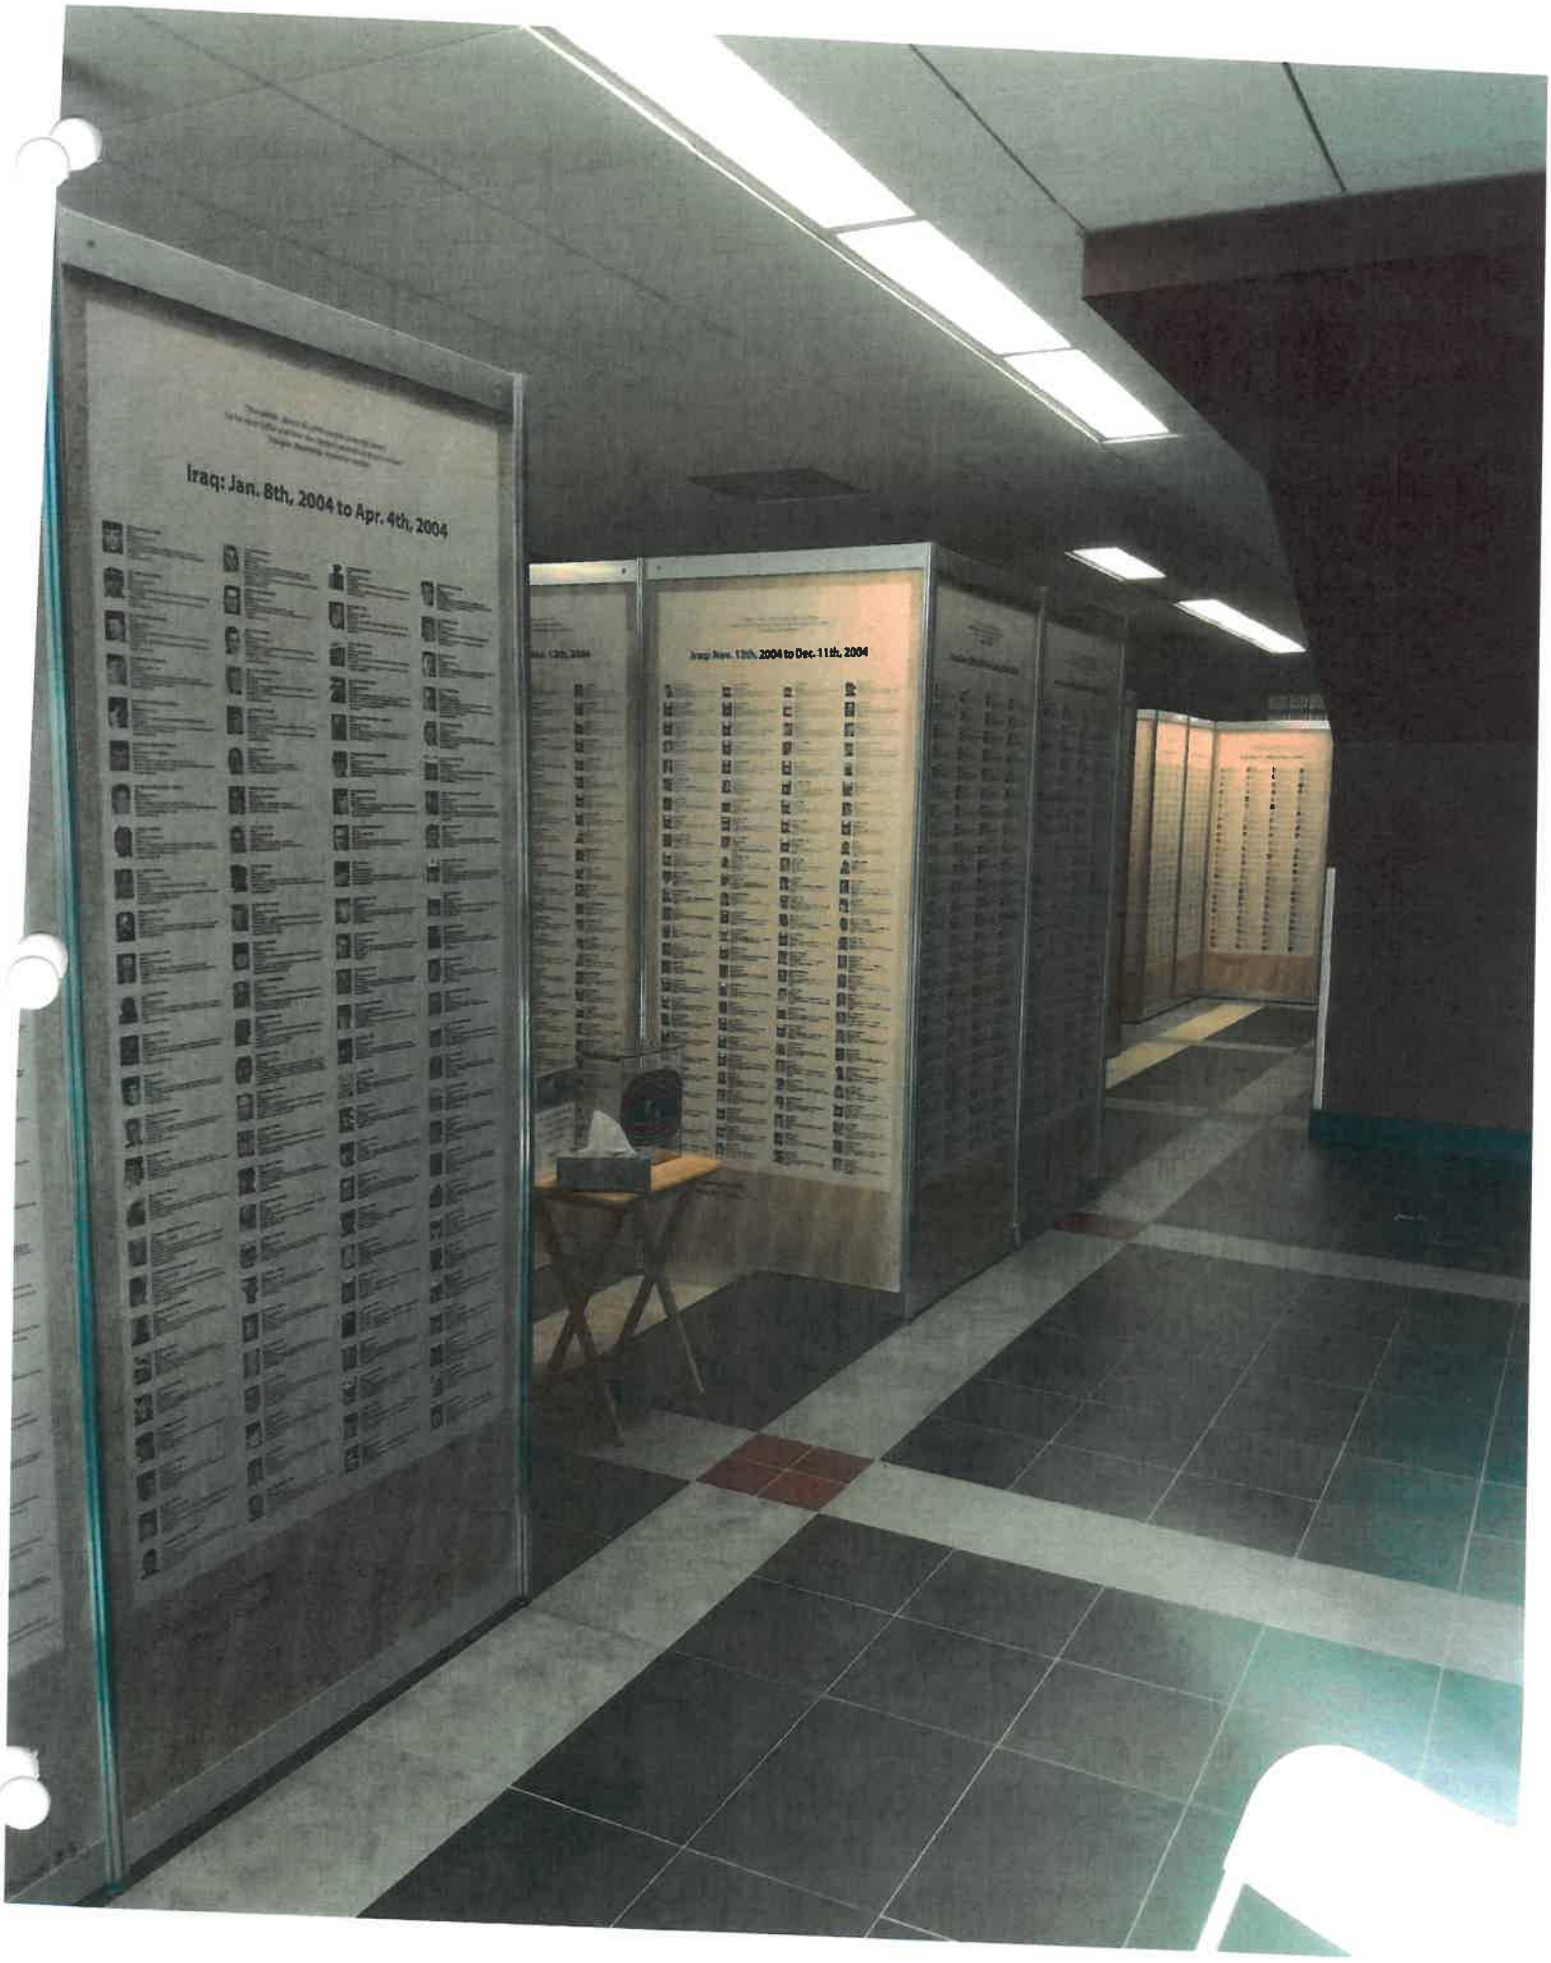

The "WALL OF HONOR" Memorial Wall was designed by Alicia Tallman as a senior project in 2003 and titled "Faces of the Fallen". In 2014, the project was taken over by "Vets Helping Vets HQ". The first viewing of the finished professional wall was in October 2015. It now shows respect and honor to all service men and women of all branches of service who paid the ultimate sacrifice in Afghanistan, Iraq, Desert Strom and Desert Shield.

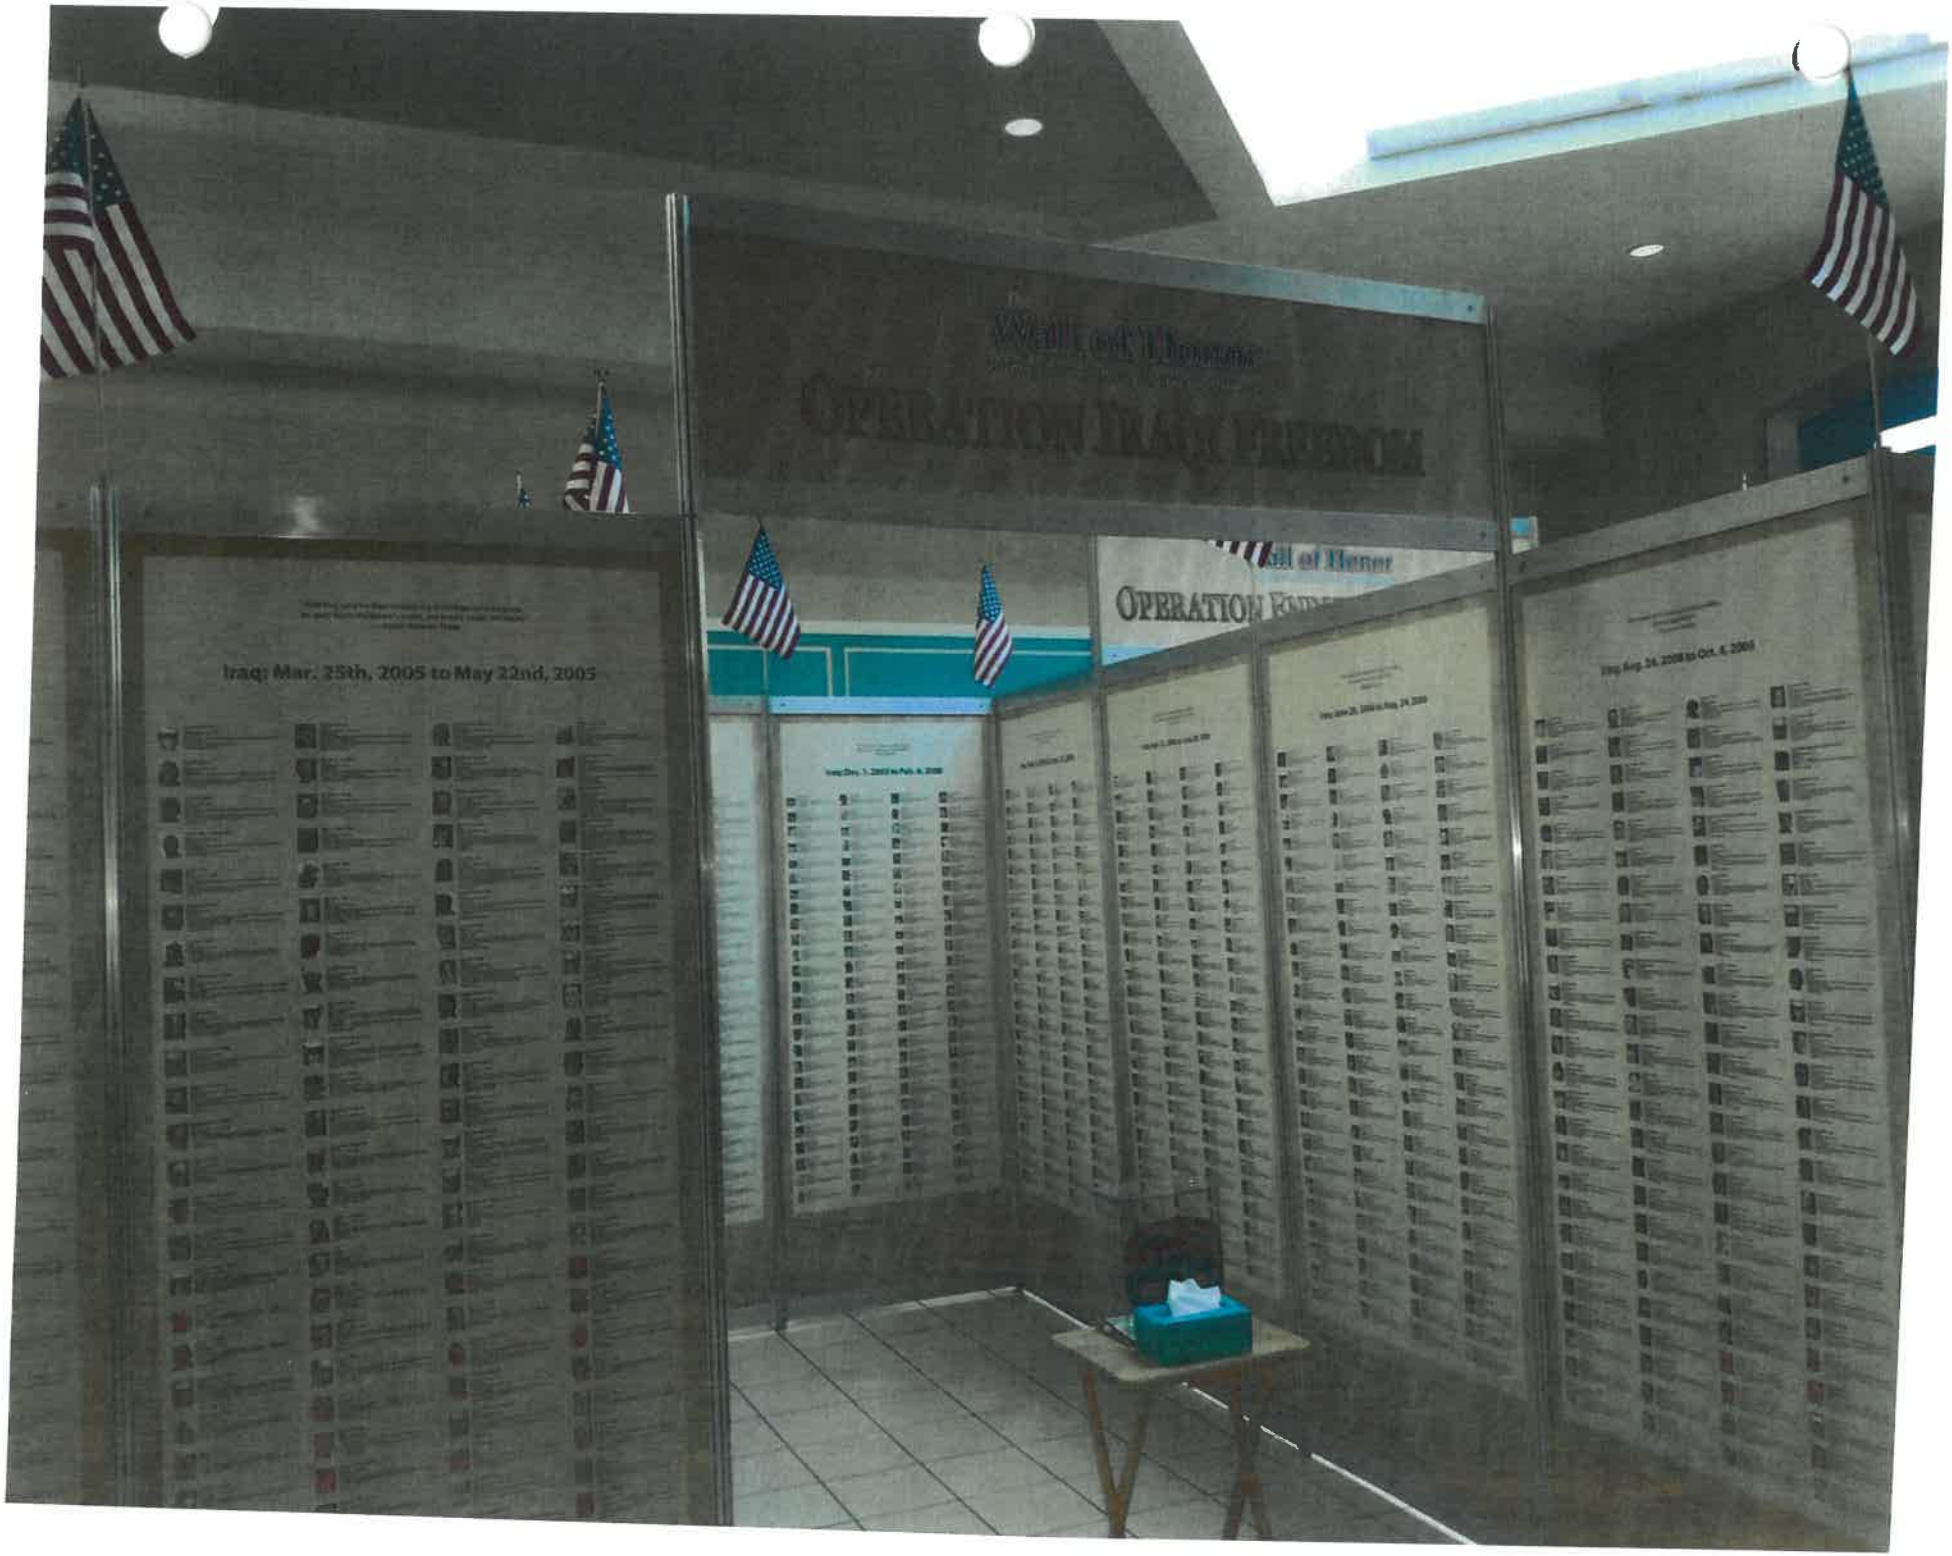

We are asking for your support to bring the "WALL OF HONOR' to the Fox Valley Area. A Field of Honor and other military displays will also be at the wall.

Thank you for your consideration and generous contribution. Your kindness is a testament to our Veterans and Military. Your thoughtfulness will play an integral part of history in the making!
