Walking together with Pastor Peter

Steps with our Past...

As our nation prepares to celebrate 250 years since the signing of the Declaration of Independence, we will hear many stories about our heritage. We will remember courage, sacrifice, perseverance, and the long struggle to build a nation committed to liberty and equality.

Heritage matters. It tells us where we have come from. It gives us stories from which we can draw strength and wisdom. It reminds us that we did not create the world in which we live by ourselves. We have inherited institutions, traditions, freedoms, responsibilities, and unfinished work from those who came before us.

But honoring our heritage does not require us to pretend that the past was perfect. The reality is that the folks who came before us were just trying to “figure it out as they go” just as we often are today. I would wager that many of the founding fathers wrestled with imposter syndrome as well. They were, after all, human... just like you and me.

The same is true for the church.

Our congregation also has a rich history. Generations of faithful people have worshiped, prayed, served, taught, struggled, and made difficult decisions here. We have inherited much from them. We should tell their stories, learn from their wisdom, and give thanks for the gifts they entrusted to us.

But no congregation's history is without mistakes, missed opportunities, disagreements, or heartaches. Honoring the past does not mean declaring that every decision was right. Nor does moving forward mean that everything from the past must be discarded. Again, those who have come before us... and before me... have been trying to figure it out as they go.

I sometimes wish the Gospel writers had recorded more about how Jesus handled the everyday interpersonal struggles among his disciples. We know they argued about which one of them was the greatest. We know James and John asked for positions of honor, upsetting the others. We know Peter often spoke first and stepped forward. Surely there were moments when personalities collided, feelings were hurt, and someone muttered under his breath on the road behind Jesus.

What did Jesus say when two disciples could no longer stand being in the same room? How did he respond when one felt ignored or another felt unfairly criticized? How did he help them name resentments before those resentments hardened into contempt?

The Gospels do not give us transcripts of all those conversations. But they do show us something important: Jesus did not simply ignore the conflict.

When the disciples argued about who was greatest, Jesus asked them what they had been discussing. When they competed for power, Jesus spoke directly about the ways power could be abused. He placed a child among them. He washed their feet. He taught them that greatness in God's kingdom is found not in controlling others, but in serving them.

Jesus did not preserve their relationship by pretending that nothing was wrong. He brought their struggles into the light and invited them into a different way of living together.

Walking together with Pastor Peter

That may be part of our calling as a congregation today.

There are times when we become so concerned with being right that we stop being curious about one another. We prepare our responses instead of listening actively. We assume we already know another person's motives. We avoid difficult conversations until silence begins to feel more peaceful than honesty.

But silence is not always peace.

Good relationships require enough trust to say, "This hurt me," "I am afraid," "I feel that I am not being heard," or even, "I may not understand this as well as I thought I did."

Listening does not mean that we will always agree. Being in good relationship does not mean that every opinion is equally wise or that harmful behavior should go unchallenged. It means recognizing that the person across from us is more than an opinion they hold. They are a child of God whose story we may not yet fully understand.

As we remember 250 years of our national heritage and the generations of faith that shaped our congregation, may we receive the past as both gift and teacher. May it give us strength without making us defensive, wisdom without making us rigid, and courage enough to acknowledge where change is needed.

We honor our heritage best not by standing still, but by carrying its greatest hopes forward.

And we follow Jesus best not by winning every argument, but by learning how to speak truth, listen deeply, serve humbly, and remain at the table with one another.

With love and blessing from, Pastor Peter Olson

TROOP 820

MAY WAS A MONTH FULL OF OUTDOOR ADVENTURE AND HANDS-ON LEARNING FOR PACK 3842! CUB SCOUTS GATHERED AT BOOMER LAKE FOR A PACK BIKE RIDE AND LATER PUT THEIR SAFETY TRAINING INTO PRACTICE DURING A FISHING DERBY, ENJOYING A GREAT DAY OF FISHING TOGETHER. WE WRAPPED UP THE MONTH BY PUTTING OUR ENGINEERING SKILLS TO WORK DURING AN EGG DROP WITH THE HELP OF THE STILLWATER FIRE DEPARTMENT. THE RESULTS WERE EGG-CELLENT! IN JUNE, OUR SCOUTS TOURED THE PISTOL PETE HOUSE TO LEARN ABOUT ONE OF OKLAHOMA STATE UNIVERSITY'S MOST RECOGNIZABLE COWBOY MASCOTS BEFORE VISITING THE OSU FLIGHT CENTER, WHERE THEY MET THE FLYING AGGIES AND LEARNED ABOUT AVIATION. SCOUTS EVEN HAD THE OPPORTUNITY TO SIT IN THE COCKPIT OF A SMALL AIRPLANE, MAKING IT AN UNFORGETTABLE EXPERIENCE FOR MANY FUTURE PILOTS. LOOKING AHEAD, WE'LL CONTINUE HAVING FUN WHILE STAYING COOL DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS. UPCOMING ACTIVITIES INCLUDE OUR RAINWATER REGATTA, WHERE SCOUTS WILL PRACTICE THEIR BOAT-BUILDING SKILLS, FOLLOWED BY A TRIP TO THE SPLASH PAD TO CELEBRATE ANOTHER GREAT SUMMER ADVENTURE.

DURING THE SUMMER, PACK 3842 MEETS EVERY OTHER MONDAY AT 6:00 P.M. WE LOOK FORWARD TO RETURNING TO OUR REGULAR MEETING SCHEDULE IN THE FALL.

TROOP 820 HAS HAD A BUSY SPRING. IN APRIL, WE TRAVELED TO ALABASTER CAVERNS FOR OUR TROOP CAMP. IN MAY WE CAMPED AT ROBBERS CAVE WHERE THE SCOUTS WORKED ON REQUIREMENTS AND HIKE THE TRAILS AROUND THE CAVE AREA. ALSO IN MAY, WE PROVIDED SERVICE WORK AT THE SPECIAL OLYMPICS SUMMER GAMES AND HELPED THE AMERICAN LEGION PLACE FLAGS AND REMOVE THEM AT THE END OF THE DAY FOR MEMORIAL DAY.

THE SCOUTS HAD A UNIQUE OPPORTUNITY TO PARTICIPATE IN THE LAST FRONTIER COUNCIL'S AMERICA 250TH CELEBRATION. HERE THE SCOUTS WERE ABLE TO STAFF A BACKPACKING DEMONSTRATION BOOTH AND LEARN ABOUT OTHER TROOPS AND THE SCOUTING AREAS THEY EMPHASIZE. WE ATTENDED SUMMER CAMP AT KERR SCOUT RANCH AT SLIPPERY FALLS IN JUNE WHERE SCOUTS HAD AN EXCITING AND FUN FILLED WEEK WORKING ON MERIT BADGES AND SPENDING TIME TOGETHER.

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES INCLUDE A DAY TRIP TO OKLAHOMA CITY TO VISIT THE NATIONAL GUARD MUSEUM AND OKC ZOO. IN AUGUST WE PLAN TO CAMP AT WILL ROGERS SCOUT RESERVATION.

IF YOU KNOW A CHILD IN KINDERGARTEN THROUGH 5TH GRADE WHO MIGHT BE INTERESTED IN JOINING CUB SCOUTS, PLEASE CONTACT PAKE WING AT PACK3842@GMAIL.COM. WE WOULD LOVE TO WELCOME THEM!

TROOP 888

AS THE SUMMER HEAT RISES, SO DO THE SPIRITS OF OUR SCOUTS. THIS YEAR, WE ATTENDED SUMMER CAMP AT THE KERR SCOUT RANCH IN TISHOMINGO, OKLAHOMA WHERE MEMBERS WORKED ON COMPLETING VARIOUS MERIT BADGES AND PARTICIPATED IN MANY ACTIVITIES. CHARLOTTE JENSON MENTIONED THAT DESPITE THE HOT AND HUMID WEATHER, THE OPPORTUNITIES THAT THE CAMP PROVIDED WERE UNMATCHED. SOME SCOUTS WERE ENGAGED IN AQUATICS, WHICH MANY CONSIDERED TO BE THE MOST ENTERTAINING PART OF CAMP. IN ADDITION TO THAT, OUR TROOP ALSO MADE FRIENDSHIP BRACELETS TOGETHER AND BONDED OVER CAMPFIRE DANCES. ASIDE FROM SUMMER CAMP, WE ALSO CLEANED OUT OUR TROOP CLOSET AND ARE PLANNING TO HOST A GARAGE SALE TO HELP FUNDRAISE FOR FUTURE ADVENTURES. HAPPY SUMMER!!

GROWING THROUGH EVERY SEASON

"TRUST IN THE LORD WITH ALL YOUR HEART AND LEAN NOT ON YOUR OWN UNDERSTANDING; IN ALL YOUR WAYS SUBMIT TO HIM, AND HE WILL MAKE YOUR PATHS STRAIGHT."

— PROVERBS 3:5-6

SUMMER HAS A WAY OF INVITING US TO SLOW DOWN. WHETHER WE'RE ENJOYING FAMILY VACATIONS, TENDING A GARDEN, OR SIMPLY SPENDING MORE TIME OUTDOORS, THIS SEASON REMINDS US THAT GROWTH TAKES TIME.

JUST AS A GARDEN DOESN'T FLOURISH OVERNIGHT, OUR FAITH GROWS LITTLE BY LITTLE THROUGH DAILY MOMENTS WITH GOD. SOME SEASONS OF LIFE ARE FILLED WITH JOY AND ABUNDANCE. OTHERS BRING UNCERTAINTY, CHANGE, OR WAITING. YET IN EVERY SEASON, GOD REMAINS FAITHFUL.

SOMETIMES WE WANT IMMEDIATE ANSWERS OR A CLEAR PICTURE OF WHAT'S AHEAD. INSTEAD, GOD OFTEN ASKS US TO TRUST HIM ONE STEP AT A TIME. HE NURTURES OUR FAITH THROUGH PRAYER, SCRIPTURE, WORSHIP, AND THE ENCOURAGEMENT OF ONE ANOTHER.

THIS MONTH, TAKE A FEW MOMENTS EACH DAY TO PAUSE AND NOTICE GOD'S PRESENCE. THANK HIM FOR BOTH THE BIG BLESSINGS AND THE SMALL MOMENTS OF GRACE—A KIND WORD FROM A FRIEND, A BEAUTIFUL SUNSET, OR THE QUIET PEACE FOUND IN PRAYER.

AS WE CONTINUE TO GROW TOGETHER AS A CHURCH FAMILY, MAY WE TRUST THAT GOD IS FAITHFULLY AT WORK IN EACH OF US, SHAPING OUR HEARTS AND LEADING US ACCORDING TO HIS PERFECT PLAN.

PRAYER:

LORD, HELP US TO TRUST YOU IN EVERY SEASON. OPEN OUR HEARTS TO SEE YOUR WORK IN OUR LIVES EACH DAY, AND STRENGTHEN OUR FAITH AS WE FOLLOW WHERE YOU LEAD. AMEN.
