Full schedule for the holiest week of the year. The high point is the Easter Vigil Mass, the greatest Mass of the year. 3 catechumens will be initiated into the Church:

Sedric A. Coleman

David E. Archer

Jordely M. Flores

Congratulations to all three & a splendid job by Ellen Delello who guided them through the OCIA.

CALVARY IS THE NEW EDEN....

...in which mankind was given back what it lost by withdrawing from My will. In Eden man lost grace, on Calvary he acquires it; in Eden Heaven was closed to him, he lost his happiness & rendered himself the slave of the infernal enemy; here in the new Eden, Heaven is opened to him once again, he reacquires the lost peace & happiness, the devil is chained & man is freed from his slavery.

In the first Eden man receives the condemnation to death of soul & body; while in the second Eden he is released from his condemnation & the resurrection of the body is reconfirmed through the resurrection of My Humanity. There are many relations between Eden & Calvary & what man lost there, here he reacquires. In the kingdom of My pains, everything is given back & the honor & glory of the poor creature is reconfirmed by means of My pains & of My death.

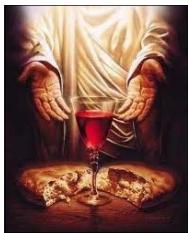

My death was necessary to My love; with My death I was to give the kiss of life to creatures. So My wounds are springs that gush with goods & My death is a spring from which life for all gushes forth.

And just as My death was necessary so was My Resurrection to My love, because by doing his will, man lost the life of My Will & I wanted rise again to form not only the resurrection of the body, but the resurrection of the life of My Will in it.

If then ungrateful man does not make use of all I have done, the evil is all his own, but My love possesses & enjoys its full triumph. (Book of Heaven, Jesus to Luisa Piccarreta, Apr. 12, 1928)

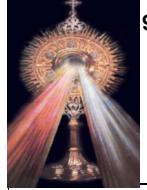

AMEN.
