LET THE DEAD BURY THE DEAD....

...but YOU, go & proclaim the Kingdom of God.

That is a universal admonition from the time He spoke it but in light of the madness all around us, it seems even more poignant as the world around us is crumbling. This is a wake up call to focus on what is really real...our eternal destination. In this testing ground of the world, our eternal destination must be a constant focus as we live through the trials & tribulations & even joys of this world. We need to come to terms with who we really are & where we are going. There was an urgency in Jesus' words to realize that fact & the mission is so critical there is no time to rest or turn back from it....for eternity & where we will spend it is at stake. Our efforts at reaching the goal are sporadic as we get lost in the pressing demands of the world around us. Yet: In return for my short & feeble labors, God is calling me to eternal rest; His voice from heaven invites me to the infinite bliss I have sought so languidly & promises me this reward for the tears I have so seldom shed. Take care not to insult God's boundless kindness which you would certainly do if you mourned as dead one living face to face with God, one whose prayers can bring you in your troubles more powerful aid than they could ever on earth. And our parting will not be for long; we shall see each other again in heaven; we shall be united with our Savior; there we shall praise Him with heart & soul, sing of His mercies forever & enjoy eternal happiness. When He takes away what He once lent us, His purpose is to store our treasure elsewhere more safely & bestow on us those very blessings that we ourselves would most choose to have. (St. Aloysius Gonzaga)

IF WE REALLY KNEW OUR LORD!

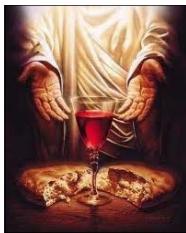

We were born to know, love & serve the Lord in this world & to be happy with Him forever in the next. We all learned & recited that in 2nd grade; such profound truths in such simple text. We cannot love someone we do not know & real service would be out of the question if we didn't love. Love gives us the motivation to serve whether it applies to our spouses & children in the family or to souls in the world at large when we are gifted with the ability to see each one of them as the Father does. This long earthly road of learning to know, love & serve has a destination...heaven.

Of the many joys that are found in the Kingdom of Heaven, the greatest seems to me to be the sense of tranquility & well-being we will experience when we are free from all concern for earthly things. Glad because others are glad & forever at peace, we shall have the deep satisfaction of seeing that by all creatures the Lord is honored & praised & His Name blessed. No one ever offends Him, for there, everyone loves Him. Loving Him is the soul's one concern. Indeed, it cannot help but love Him, for it KNOWS Him. Here below our love must necessarily fall short of that perfection & constancy, but even so, how different it would be, how much more like that of Heaven if we really KNEW our Lord! (St. Teresa of Avila)

WE SHALL SEE EACH OTHER AGAIN!

So let us not turn back but forge ahead living rightly to reach the destination prepared for us & while here, let us continue to pray for those who have gone before us that they rise to the heights of beholding the face of the Father & are even freer & more excited & delighted to pray for us to join them there....soon.
