DEATH IS NOT PART OF NATURE, it became part of nature. God did not decree death from the beginning; He prescribed it as a remedy. Human life was condemned because of sin & so began to experience the burden of wretchedness. There had to be a limit to its evils; death had to restore what life had forfeited. (St. Ambrose)

SO MANY OF THE SOULS WHO HAVE GONE BEFORE US HAVE BECOME SAINTS. And heaven has a whole host of saints we celebrate, we pray to & we thank God for. Celebrating the saints is a holy duty & is a Holy Day of Obligation...which means you need to get to Mass on Nov. 1 at either noon or 8PM in the rectory. There will be no Scripture Study on Tues. & no Prayer Meeting on Wed. due to Masses on those evenings.

EVEN JESUS HAD TO STOP, LOOK & LISTEN....

...& change His plans. He was intending to pass through Jericho, not stop there & end up healing a wealthy tax collector, a perceived enemy of the people for all the excess taxes he imposed on them for his benefit & then have dinner with him! The God Man disposes & the Father of the God Man disposes & sends the humanity of the God Man on a different course for the sake of a soul. The salvation of this soul embodies the fact that God's ways are not our ways. The locals would have preferred Zacchaeus to be run out of the town or at least fall out of the tree. But the Father saw the soul of a beloved son & a seeking soul at that. Something inside him thirsted for what the Son had to offer & risking the humiliation of climbing a tree to behold Him was nothing compared to the reward of having done it. He got the recognition of the One His soul was thirsting for & got to prepare dinner for the King of the Universe as he came to know Him to be.

He surely got down from that tree quicker than he got up it to hasten to prepare a meal & reception for the One his soul longed to be with. That the opinion of the locals was of no account before that served him well as he did not have to waste soul energy worrying about what other people thought. His soul had a straight path to the heart of the One his soul thirsted for.

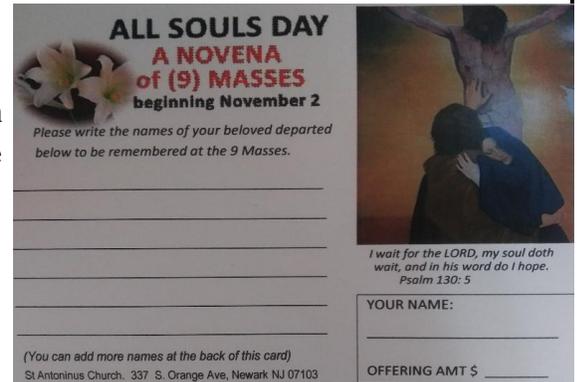

So Jesus' intention got thwarted by the scenario planned by the Father to save a soul & send a message that no one is out of the transforming love of the Father...even sinners, which Zacchaeus acknowledged himself to be. That day salvation came to that house of a sinner just as it can come to ours if we repent of our sins.

ON THE CUSP OF NOVEMBER...

...we pause to remember those who have gone before us. Some go to cemeteries with elaborate remembrances, some have Masses offered, some quietly remember in their hearts & prayers & sadly mourn, those who have no faith are even unaware of the significance of the day & are totally absorbed in the world that is passing away having no knowledge of why they are even here. We as Catholics take time to remember, mourn as need be as we remember our loved ones, but look forward to the great reunion in the next world, the real world. As we look at the world situation especially today, we are galvanized to purify our path to our ultimate destination & pray for those who might still need help with their purification in purgatory. So we take this day seriously. If you have not yet filled out the All Souls Cards available at the door, take them, fill them out & enclose an offering & join the church in praying for the souls of the Father's beloved children, especially your loved ones in this, your parish home. And as we pray for them, we contemplate our own passing which can come at any time. Is our soul prepared? Confession lines seem to be lengthening which means we are sensing something coming & rightly so as we look at the perverse evil being shouted & practiced from the roof tops. We are living in an abyss of misery as we pray in the prayers of the Divine Mercy chaplet & we are meant to go through these times as Jesus went through His crucifixion to His Resurrection. We are to follow Him & at this time the Church (& all its members) is going through its passion & as unpleasant as it all is for all of us, we were born for such a time as this. The ship is rocking that can take us into the safe harbor of heaven & it, too, might flounder but will be revived again & all in it by the power of the Holy Spirit we have received. Heaven is our home & He will get us there.
