MEN: Get to the Saturday morning Praise & Worship & fellowship for men from 8am-10am in the rectory. Men need to be with men so come & bring other men with you. Time is short!

THEY REJOICED THAT THEY HAD BEEN WORTHY TO SUFFER FOR THE SAKE OF THE NAME.

Have you noticed how much suffering & death have been surrounding us? Every time you turn around, it seems we are heading to the funeral of a loved one or friend or someone we know is suffering from severe illness. How can one rejoice in all that? There has to be a supernatural purpose for it for us to rejoice in the suffering as the apostles did. In the midst of the suffering, they found joy. They didn't rejoice in the pain & suffering but in the use of it to help bring salvation for souls just as Jesus did. The bride, us the Church, is following the Bridegroom through the pangs of the crosses he admonishes us to take up & follow Him down the thorny narrow path of salvation. As He embraced the cross with joy knowing what fruits that would yield, so, we too, must find a supernatural joy in the effect of our suffering for His Name.

We give glory to You Lord, Who raised up Your cross to span the jaws of death like a bridge by which souls might pass from the region of the dead to the land of the living. (St. Ephrem)

Suffering is one of the greatest gifts He can give us as much as we would try to avoid it. It is in suffering for others that we are most like Christ. Many of the saints implored the Lord to allow them to suffer with Him for the salvation of souls. Upon their death they wished that they had suffered more. We will all suffer but not beyond our ability to bear it with the help of His grace. The worst tragedy in this world is to waste that suffering & deny the help Jesus asks of us to follow Him & win souls for salvation as He did for us.

WHAT HEROES ARE THOSE WHO CARE FOR THE SUFFERING...

...helping them to not only bear it but help them find meaning in it. All of the apostles suffered torture & death with the exception of John & many saints have prayed for a martyr's death in emulation of the One they chose to die for. Where did they get the wherewithal to do that? The Holy Spirit.

The Holy Spirit instills in us His life-giving power, awakening our souls from the death of sin to the life that they had in the beginning. (St. Basil the Great)

We are destined for the sheepfolds of heaven & the apostles had come to believe in that & yearned for it by dying to themselves & offering their lives for others to regain what had been lost by our first parents.

By the cross death was slain & Adam was restored to life. The cross is the glory of all the apostles, the crown of the martyrs, the sanctification of the saints. (which we are all called to be). By the cross, we put on Christ & cast aside our former self. By the cross, we, the sheep of Christ, have been gathered in the one flock, destined for the sheepfolds of heaven. (St. Theodore the Studite)

OUR BODIES ARE BEING NOURISHED FOR THE JOURNEY BEYOND THIS WORLD.

Our bodies which have been nourished by the Eucharist, will be buried in the earth & will decay, but they will rise again at the appointed time, for the Word of God will raise them up to the Glory of the Father. Then the Father will clothe our mortal nature in immortality & freely endow our corrupted nature with incorruptibility, for God's power is shown more perfectly in weakness. (St. Irenaeus)
