NOTICE THE NEWLY PAINTED RED DOORS TO THE CHURCH?

Long overdo freshening up of the façade of the Father's House. The teens from Catholic Heart Work Camp spent 4 days carting out a dumpster load of trash, painting doors, digging out an area by S. 8th St. for a stone wall & a raising of the level of the lawn to facilitate mowing & improve appearances in the Father's yard. Our 9 team members were from Maine, NJ, Massachusetts & Pennsylvania. There were 190 campers who worked all over the area serving in many capacities.

NONE OTHER THEN THE FATHER

The goal set before us is no trifling thing; we are striving for eternal life. In the Creed. We are taught to believe in life everlasting & for this as Christians, we are struggling.

Now real & true life is none other than the Father, Who is the Fountain of life & Who pours forth His heavenly gifts on all creatures through the Son by the Holy Spirit & the good things of eternal life are faithfully promised to us men also, because of His love for us. (St. Cyril of Jerusalem)

In these last days of a totally corrupt age, the Father has appeared to us through the revelations to Sr. Eugenia Ravasio. These revelations were scrutinized for over 10 years & given approval by the Bishop of Grenoble, the Right Reverend A. Caillot. She went home to the Father on Aug. 10, 1990 so these revelations are for our time. Read the booklet that was distributed to everyone at Mass last year or go online & put "The Father Speaks to His Children" in the search engine. This is the time of the Father. He is encouraging us to draw near to Him & get over the fear many have of Him. He is coming to bring us hope that we might come to know & love Him & thus want to serve & obey Him. He is coming to make Himself known personally to us so our trust in Him may increase & our love for Him as well.

We must get off the roller coaster of this world & seriously seek Him & His mercy while He can thus be found. Keep in mind that His justice is as great as His mercy & as Sr. Faustina has warned us, these days of mercy are coming to a close as Jesus told her that the awful day of His justice is near.

HE STILL PERSISTED.

The courage of Abraham to bargain with God & every time, God relented. One has to wonder if Abraham had gone so far as one good soul in Sodom, would God have spared it? His persistence is admirable. Can we even come close to that...bargaining & pleading with God for souls...our own & those of our family members who we know are far from Him & we sense the time is short.

There is no limit, as yet, to the Father's persistence in getting our attention to urgently turn to Him NOW. He has sent His best ambassador, His Mother, to so many places to urge us to turn to her Son NOW before He comes as the just Judge & come He will.

We are surrounded by wolves in sheep's clothing undermining the faith we have long believed & desperately need Now as a sure anchor to keep the ship afloat.

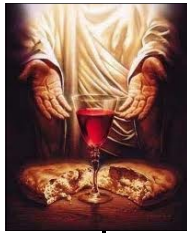

Do not be overwhelmed by those who seem trustworthy & yet teach heresy. Remain firm, like the anvil under the hammer. The good athlete must take punishment in order to win. And above all we must bear with everything for God, so that He in turn may hear us. Increase your zeal. READ THE SIGNS OF THE TIMES. Look for Him Who is outside time, the Eternal One, the Unseen, Who became visible for us; He cannot be touched & cannot suffer, yet He became subject to suffering & endured so much for our sake. (St. Ignatius of Antioch)

Being an anvil under a hammer does not sound very appealing, but then again, neither did torture & a Cross inflicted by creatures on their Creator. Why such extremes? Because eternity & where we will spend it is at stake.

The Father gave the most precious thing He had, His own beloved Son to ransom us, His beloved children. We, too, need to tread the path of suffering in this world to get to the eternal glory of the next.

While on the anvil, bear it, for a whole new eternal life is being forged by the Master Forger.
