The Callahan Decree

The Right to Shelter

Callahan v. Carey signed in 1981 established the Right to Shelter in New York City

- ▶ 1979 Class action suit on behalf of homeless men in Bowery
- ▶ Complainants sought a temporary mandatory injunction requiring the City of New York to shelter homeless men
- ▶ The consent decree signed required NYC to provide sufficient beds to meet the needs of every homeless man applying for shelter
- ▶ Also set minimum standards for shelter provisions

The ANH Shelter Delivery Model:

The DHS System (Single Shelter)

Intake Centers are designed to review 1st time applicants of the shelter system

Assessment does a review of client needs to select a shelter with appropriate services

Permanent/Official shelter is where a client will be assigned after being assessed; as long as they enter the site at a minimum of 1 time in 365 days, it will remain their official assigned shelter

The Role of Vacancy Control (IVC)- Single Shelter

Shelter capacity is maintained by IVC within DHS

- Every resident is required to return to shelter no later than 10pm nightly.
- Each night, every shelter contacts IVC to report their census at 10pm, 12am, and 2am
- Should a sites census not meet their capacity, IVC will send a client waiting at assessment for a permeant bed

So what happens if someone misses their bed at 10pm and returns after the site has spoken with IVC?

The DHS System – Families with Children Shelter

Shelter Types:
Stand Alone (Tier II)
Scatter Site
Cluster Site
Hotel

PATH (Prevention Assistance and Temporary Housing Office) located on 151st St. is the only intake center in NYC for families to apply for shelter.

PATH does a review of client housing history to confirm eligibility for shelter. (Expected to take 10 days to confirm eligibility)

Permanent/Official shelter is where a client will be assigned after being assessed; as long as they do not exit for more than 48 consecutive hours it will remain their official assigned shelter. Once a client is logged out they will then have to re-apply for shelter.

The Role of HERO

Shelter capacity is maintained by HERO within DHS

- Every resident is required to return to shelter no later than 10pm nightly.
- 48 hour log out, move out, transfer, and etc. result in offline unit.
- Offline units, must be repaired and cleaned to be placed online.
- Each shift, every shelter contacts the Call Center to report their census.
- Should a site have any online units, HERO will send a Family waiting at PATH for a permanent bed.

So what happens when we have too many offline units?
