

Dr. Jerry Thomas is a United States Army veteran. He serves as the Vice President for Student Affairs and Enrollment Management at National Park College in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Previously, he was the Assistant Vice President for Student Affairs at Thomas Edison State University in Trenton, New Jersey. Employed at Southern Arkansas University (SAU), Magnolia, Arkansas, from 1993 to 2013, Dr. Thomas served in various student affairs positions and maintained an adjunct instructor position teaching U.S. History courses at the university. He earned a Bachelor of Arts in History from Southern Arkansas University in Magnolia, a Master of Arts in History from Louisiana Tech University, a Master of Education in Agency Counseling from Southern Arkansas University, and a Doctorate of Education with an emphasis in Educational Administration from Texas A & M University in Commerce Texas. Dr. Thomas's research interests include educational leadership, enrollment management, and student success strategies to support low-income and first-generation college students. He has served on non-profit boards in his community and is an active member of the Roanoke Baptist Church in Hot Springs, Arkansas.