

BREAKING NEWS

2025 BLACK HISTORY MONTH KICK OFF

This year, SBCCD's Black Faculty & Staff Association, in collaboration with Student Equity and Achievement Programs, present Academic Innovator, creator of the HipHopEd social media movement and New York Times Bestseller, Award Winning Author, Dr. Chris Emdin. With the 2025 National Black History Month theme being "African Americans and Labor", we are pleased to have Dr. Emdin speak on the topic of "PUTTING IN WORK!", with implications for our students, Educational Professionals, and community as a whole. This event promises to be energetic, engaging, informative...you don't want to miss it!

WEDNESDAY
FEBRUARY 5TH
9 AM
SBVC AUDITORIUM

FEATURED TOPICS:

- The narrative of the Black Student
- INTENTIONAL Equity and Success
- Innovation & Change
- Being a Black Serving Institution (BSI)

FOLLOWED BY A
VIP DISCUSSION
AND Q&A SESSION

