FACULTY

Lizbet Sánchez
lsanchez@mtsac.edu

Dr. Lizbet Sánchez is a Chicana educator with many years of experience teaching Spanish at Mt. San Antonio College. She became an avid traveler after participating in a study abroad program in Spain during her undergraduate studies. That experience transformed her life. She would love to support curious learners in deepening their global perspective on life. Studying abroad provides learners with the opportunity to gain a deeper understanding of themselves and the world around them.

Patrick Borja
pborja@citruscollege.edu

Patrick Borja joined Citrus College in 2004. He earned an M.B.A. and an M.A. in Education from California State University, Los Angeles, and is a Certified Public Accountant. Patrick has taught a variety of business courses in the 2016 and 2024 London Study Abroad programs. His goal is to inspire students to become lifelong learners and help them develop essential skills through business and accounting education. His previous career as a flight attendant and his passion for travel have taken him to over 30 countries.

Phillip Boland
pboland@miracosta.edu

Prof. Phillip Boland is a full-time tenured Film faculty at MiraCosta College who serves as the Department Chair of Theatre and Film. He is the Film Club Advisor, the college's largest club, recipient of the Outstanding Club Award. He earned his MFA at the prestigious Art Center College of Design. He is recognized with over 25 awards and honors from film festivals throughout the world, including the Remi Grand Jury Award for Best Feature Screenplay.
