

Dr. Van Beek currently serves as the Executive Director of Ambulatory Care for the University of Iowa Hospitals & Clinics where she also served 2 terms as Chief of Staff of the hospital system. Dr. Van Beek holds the C. William Hanke Professor of Dermatologic Surgery & Cutaneous Oncology and is director of the ACGME fellowship in Micrographic Surgery and Dermatologic Oncology. She performs Mohs surgery both at the University of Iowa and the Iowa City Veterans Affairs Medical Center.

Dr. Van Beek has been heavily involved her national specialty organization, recently completing her term as Secretary-Treasurer of the American Academy of Dermatology (AAD). She has been instrumental in implementing the national registry for the specialty of dermatology and currently Co-Chairs the committee that oversees the function of DataDermTM. Dr. Van Beek has a long interest in health policy, previously serving as Chair of the Congressional Policy Committee, and Chair of the Council on Government Affairs & Health Policy for the AADA. Currently, she serves on the Council on Legislation for the American Medical Association.