

When can I sue and receive money for discrimination.

The question that is always asked of lawyers! Damages could be obtained without being required to go back to the doctor or hospital that you are suing. However, if you did not complain to the doctor, nurse or someone else that had the authority to provide an interpreter, then you will not be able to sue for damages.