

Stephanie Langer has been practicing law since 1998. She began her legal career in the Miami Dade County State Attorney's Office as an Assistant State Attorney. Stephanie has been litigating education cases since 2006. Stephanie spent two years as a staff attorney with the Southern Poverty Law Center with a focus on education cases. In May of 2014, Stephanie opened Langer Law, P.A. a boutique law firm focusing on education, guardianship, benefits appeals, special needs trusts and estate planning for families with children with disabilities. Stephanie is admitted to practice law in Florida, Georgia, New York and New Jersey. She is also permitted to appear in the U.S. District Court in Florida's Southern and Middle Districts. Stephanie attended college at Syracuse University in New York ('90) and law school at The Catholic University of America, Columbus School of Law in Washington, D.C. ('98). Stephanie was also a U.S. Congressional Page for Congressman Claude Pepper in 1988 and selected to work for Senator Bill Bradley's PAC, Participation 2000 in 1994.