

8th Grade Washington, D.C. Pre-Trip Behavior Contract

It is required that all students attending the Washington, D.C. trip meet certain academic, behavior, and attendance standards. Registration for this trip demonstrates agreement with the behavior contract provided below.

- Participants must be passing ALL core subjects (ELA, Math, Science, Social Studies, and Intensive Reading (if enrolled) with a 60% or higher.
- Participants must have no more than 5 unexcused absences from the date of trip registration.
- Participants must exhibit model behavior by following the MCA L.E.A.D. expectations.

Unacceptable behavior resulting in any of the following consequences during the school year may result in removal from the trip:

- Any Level 3 or higher Offense
- Out of school suspension
- More than 2 instances of suspension (ISS)

Students, please be aware of these guidelines and monitor your actions as you progress through each school day. It is not the intention of the school administration or faculty to limit the attendance on such a positive, educational trip. Instead, it is our intention to encourage students to be successful in their academic and behavioral pursuits.

Parents, should the need arise, we will notify you if your child's status changes due to poor academics, attendance or behavior. Due to pricing being dependent on the number of participants, if your child's status changes and they are not able to attend due to attendance, behavior, or grades, you will NOT be reimbursed what you have paid toward the trip.
