The Campaign Organizer is responsible for reporting directly to the Campaign Manager in support of strategic resource management. In this role you'll manage a wide variety of demands including voter contact in the field through door knocking, coordinating a volunteer network to support the campaign efforts, scheduling, engaging with local and state leadership and political networks, and coordinating with the Campaign Manager the various day-to-day operations and engagement with campaign staff.

Your responsibilities will include:

- Providing support to the Field Director and Volunteer Field team to ensure they have everything they need to hit their programmatic and voter contact goals;
- Overseeing the campaign's volunteer network by identifying, recruiting, and managing volunteers to assist with campaign needs; including phone
- Maintaining campaign headquarters and coordinating administrative aspects of the campaign, including phone banking.
- Assisting the Communications team in outreach to and follow up with constituents and candidate's network;
- Supporting the Fundraising & Events coordinators at campaign events; and
- Working closely on a daily basis with the Campaign Manager to support any other aspects of the campaign as needed.

Requirements:

- Great people skills - you'll be knocking doors and phone banking for our candidate regularly!
- An ability to execute under pressure and stay on task
- Strong organizational skills
- Experience working on or with political field programs and/or campaigns preferred
- Phenomenal work ethic; with long hours and weekends as needed

Salary: Commensurate with experience.

Interested Candidates please submit a resume with a short statement of interest and experience in the body of the email to Info@MaryBethCanty.org.
