AfterGlow Chorus: Harmony with Meaning

WONDER & JOY: Celebrating Stevie Wonder's 75th Birthday

"Wonder & Joy" is an uplifting, exuberant concert honoring the great Stevie Wonder's 75th birthday! AfterGlow Chorus will be performing a breathtaking program that spans many musical genres (e.g., classical, jazz, R&B, Gospel, and more). Come enjoy some of Stevie Wonder's timeless classics as well as the breathtaking harmonies of choral masterpieces.

CONCERT

Sunday, March 16, 4pm: San Francisco Choral Artists

Apple Pie and All That: An American Sampler

American choral music offers almost infinite varieties of styles, colors, and moods. Join us on a journey from coast to coast as we sample its riches. In collaboration with pianist Dara Phung, we'll offer spirituals, Moravian hymns, jazz, and Broadway classics alongside works of Ives, Bernstein, Copland, Randall Thompson, Billings and Conrad Susa. In addition, we'll present brand new works by Composer-in-Residence Xingyue Song, and Composer-Not-in-Residence Patricia Julien.

CONCERT

Sunday, March 23, 3pm: Prometheus Symphony Orchestra

Fourth Concert

Sergei Prokofiev • Symphony No. 5 in Bb Major
Manuel de Falla • Siete canciones populares españolas

Raeeka Shehabi-Yaghami, Soprano soloist

We are happy to offer free, Sunday afternoon concerts to further Prometheus' primary mission of bringing classical music to members of our community, including those who may not otherwise be able to attend a live symphony concert. Families with children are always welcome.

In April

Pacific Edge Voices: Music of the Elements: The Bonds We Share

Pacific Boychoir Academy: Chichester Psalms, Leonard Bernstein
