Children can come to the library, select a book and read to a furry friend. All therapy dogs and handlers have been certified by an accredited organization. This program was designed originally because children feel less pressure to read to a dog than an adult; so it was meant to be a way to help struggling readers or even just encourage reading. It is open to all levels of readers and non-readers. Space is limited.

Saturday, Feb. 23 at 2:00- Meet the Author- Julie Kline

Our Local Author Series continues with Julie Kline. Local artist, Julie Kline, has just published her first children's book. Julie is a resident of Montgomery and a member of the Kendall Arts Guild, the Aurora Art League, and the Naperville Art League. She's also a graduate of the Art Institute of Boston and has won numerous awards for her art. Julie's passion is nature and her favorite subject is animals of all types. This book has been a lifelong passion, and she will be sharing her story.
